

Kartik does a cameo

OUR CORRESPONDENT |
MUMBAI

Sapna Babul ka Bidaai, the Star Plus show that deals with the issue of discrimination on the basis of skin colour, is setting a new record of introducing cameos.

The show has introduced 12 cameos till now in a span of three months, namely Rajesh Thakkar, Neeta Shetty, Mahesh Thakur, Vishal Singh, Rucha Gujrati, Manish Rai Sighani, Rajesh Khattar, Yamini Singh, Pragiti Mehra, Sheela David, Rajinder Dubey and Girish Jain.

Production house Director Kut's Rajan Shahi of Bidaai says, "All the cameos introduced have added value to the story leaving an impact on the life of the two lead characters Sara Khan, who plays Sadhna and Parul Chauhan who plays Ragini."

About the latest cameo that they have added, Rajan says, "Kartik Sabharwal's character is called Shailendra and his cameo is quite interesting. We would be introducing more cameos as and when required by the story. The simplicity of the show is something that is contributing to the success of the show."

A still from Sapna Babul ka Bidaai

Kartik was also seen as Bhavishya in Ghar Ki Laxmi Betiyaan and as Prince in the afternoon soap Rakhi on Zee TV. "I am doing this cameo as it is interesting and I share an excellent rapport with producer Rajan Shahi," says the actor.