PARTY TIME!

Rajan Shahi's Sapna Babul ka Bidaai topped the TRP charts recently and it was a reason enough for Rajan Shahi and his production house 'Director's Kut' to throw a party at Marimba, a lounge Bar in Andheri. The star cast of Bidaai and Yeh Ristha Kya Kehlata Hai was seen having a good time and a lot of industry folks turned to wish the producer. Rajan Shahi personally attended all the guests along with his mom Deepa Shahi. A huge cake was cut and everyone was seen on the dance floor. On the occasion of Bidaai success party, Producer Rajan Shahi said, "The units work really hard and that has translated in the success of Bidaai and Yeh Ristha Kya Kehlata Hai topping the TRP charts consistently. It's the simplicity factor which has worked in making audiences love the show". Keep it coming Rajan!

Renew marital vows

Rajan Shah, the name behind Bidaai on Star Plus has lined up yet another show for the channel titled Yeh Ristha Kya Kehlata Hai which airs from Monday. The soap is about love in a marriage and is set in a Marwari family with Udaipur as the backdrop. Newbies Heena Khan and Karan Mehra in the leads. Building on the show's premise of marriage being a journey of celebration and not just a destination, the channel is inviting married couples to renew their vows with the show. Married couples can send in their entries to test their compatibility today and tomorrow. Winners get a chance to renew their ties at the Taj Rambagh Palace in Jaipur.
